Bismillahir Rahmaanir Raheem

IMMEDIATE WILAYAT

By Hadhrat Moulana Yunus Patel Saheb
(Rahmatullahi ‘alaih)

“…VERILY ALLAH LOVES THOSE WHO REPENT…”

[Surah Al-Baqarah 2 : 222]

A YOUNG PERSON, after listening to a talk, experienced a revolution in his heart. He asked me: “With my past, with the sins in my life, how is it possible for me to become a Wali [Friend of Allah Ta’ala]?”

I said: “It is extremely simple. It takes just one minute to become a Wali. Raise your hands and with deep regret and remorse in your heart, shed a few tears and pray to Allah Ta’ala: ‘O Allah, I have wasted my life but I want to become Your Wali; I want to become Your friend. Forgive me all the sins which I have committed since maturity and grant me the Taufeeq to do that which pleases You in my future life.’

You have immediately become a Wali. Now make an effort towards fulfilling those rights that had been neglected. The effort made indicates to the sincerity of your Taubah.”

If Salaah and Fasts were missed, Qadha [obligations performed after the expiry of its time] must necessarily be made. If Zakaah, Qurbani and Sadaqatul Fitr were not fulfilled, then such monies must necessarily be paid. The same applies to monies that are owing to people. Pay back to whomsoever what is due or ask them to forgive. If not, then that Taubah will not be complete. Also, if harm and injury was caused to another, his forgiveness should be sought.

If there are a number of outstanding Salaah or fasts due, it is obvious that a person cannot complete everything in one day. This will take due time. However, the intention of the person, to fulfil all dues of Allah Ta'ala and creation, and the effort made in that direction makes the person a friend and beloved of Allah Ta'ala.

If the person does not make any effort in that direction after Taubah, this is a clear sign that he was not sincere in his Taubah. Further, in respect to his future life, every effort should be made not to return to sins.

HAZRAT
MAULANA YUNUS PATEL
RAHMATULLAH ALAYH

بسم الله الرحمن الرحيم

Dua for Immediate Wilayat (Friend of Allah Ta'ala)

"O Allah, bless us all with Aml, Ikhlaas and Maqbooliyat.

O Allah, forgive us our past sins and give us the courage to restrain ourselves from indulging in any form of disobedience to You in future.

O Allah, bless us with the purification of our hearts, from greed, pride, malice, insincerity, show, anger, envy and jealousy.

O Allah, bless us all with the best of Dunya And Aakhirat.

O Allah, fill our hearts with Your Love and the Love of Rasulullah

O Allah, bless us with such a bond with You that nafs and Shaytaan cannot distance us from You.

O Allah, protect us, as well as the entire Ummah, from all the fitnahs that are lashing at us from all sides

O Allah, forgive all those who have passed away. And when our time of death arrives, then let it be in a state of Imaan, and at a time when You are pleased with us.

O Allah, we ask of You all the goodness which had been asked for by Your Messenger, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم; and we seek Your protection from all evil things from which Your Messenger, Muhammad صلى الله عليه وسلم had asked protection from; Only You are capable of helping us."

(Aameen)