Where will you be when the nuclear war starts?

Allah ﷻ has informed us, by way of the Last Messenger of Allah ﷺ, that a war will occur in the last days, the aakhir zamaan, wherein such weapons will be used and fighting will be such that 99 out of 100 combatants will be killed, to the extent that if a bird flew above the war, it would fall down and die.

The words of that hadeeth regarding the bird are as follows:

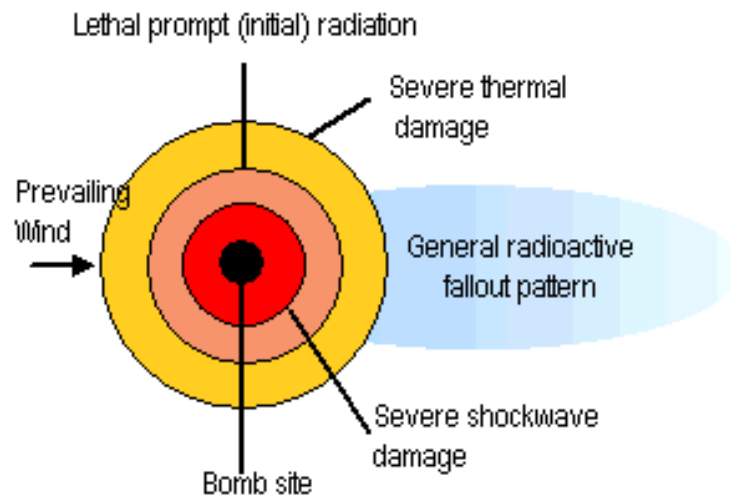

حَتَّىٰ إِنَّ الطَّائِرَ لَيَمُرُّ بِجَنَابَتِهِمْ فَمَا يُخَلِّفُهُمْ حَتَّىٰ يَخْرَ مَيِّتًا

Although it is famously translated as “flying above”, the words of this narration as recorded in Saheeh Muslim, actually mean a bird flying “along” or passing “by”, or “around the flanks” of this army, will not even pass them without falling down dead. (Full hadeeth: <https://sunnah.com/muslim:2899a>)

What kind of a war will cause birds flying past the war, not even above it, to fall down and die?

In our time we know that this only can be a nuclear war, where radiation extends out and causes animals and living things to die from exposure. Even chemical warfare is limited to the area in which it is used and does not extend outward like nuclear radiation and fallout.

When the nuclear bomb was dropped at Hiroshima in 1945, animals and birds in the area and surrounds died immediately, and those further away died over the period of the next few days from the radiation. Survivors in the area say that for a long time afterwards there was complete silence, no chirping of birds or sounds from any animals.

So this points to what we know today as a nuclear war, with radiation exposure causing death far and wide from the place of battle.

This type of war will most definitely occur, it is inevitable, and it will involve muslim armies, most likely in the region of Shaam, which includes modern day Palestine, Jordan, Syria, Lebanon, & parts of southern Turkey.

 referred to by the Prophet ﷺ as Ash-Shām

Abdullah ibn Masood (RA) pointed towards Shaam when relating this hadeeth.

Only Allah ﷻ truly knows if we are close to this time or not.

But from looking at the current world events, It seems that we are already in, or close to this zamaana, when this war, the malhama kubra, will take place.

- Turkey is regaining its Islamic strength and identity, the coup attempt by the US was thwarted, and in 2020 during the perpetration of the covid deception, the Hagia Sophia was returned to being a Masjid after 85 years. (this is regarded as a type of "fath(victory)" and major turning point for the ummah, Alhamdulillah)
- Afghanistan, which has in it the Khurasan area, from where Mahdi's army will march, has been liberated from its occupiers and returned to proper Muslim rule after twenty years in 2021
- Russia began a full scale invasion of Ukraine in 2022, with a strong Muslim component of the army, some say that this could be the alliance between a Muslim and "Roman" army. Allah ﷻ knows best
- In Palestine, the mujahideen led an attack on its oppressors in 2023 and while thousands have become shaheed, the oppressors have also suffered tremendous losses and been exposed worldwide.
- The most central area of Shaam, which is modern day Syria, has been relieved of the shia filth and oppression of the last 50+ years, in 2024
- The world is seeing the open treachery of the yahood, and starting to turn against them.
- People are coming into Islam in massively multiplied numbers compared to previous years.
- Worldwide there is turmoil and the cries of rebellion and civil war.

The stage has thereby been set for a shake up of the entire world, and it is approximately 100 years since the Ottoman Khilafat ended, so the time is ripe for a reviver of Islam in the world and the return to Khilafat.

The western shaytaani powers are not happy with these developments, they are feeling the imminent loss of their control, and they are therefore working to accelerate the emergence of their saviour, the Dajjaal.

The yahood are already preparing the ceremonies for the arrival of Dajjaal, their “messiah” and actively working to build his throne at Al-Aqsa which they refer to as the third temple

But for their Messiah Dajjaal to arrive, they are also aware that there has to be a malhama-kubra, a large apocalyptic war first, which they are trying their utmost to ignite.

Recently they tried to foment a nuclear war by staging a false flag attack in Kashmir, and getting India and Pakistan to go to war, but this plan backfired when India was severely crippled and cried for a ceasefire. With assistance from the Chinese, Pakistani jets dealt a decisive blow to many Indian army installations. Perhaps this may have been done to expose China's hand, or perhaps they really thought it would result in a nuclear war, Allah ﷻ knows best.

Now recently, they have started the plan they had in waiting for many years, the theatrical “war with Iran”, from where Dajjaal will actually emerge, accompanied by 70 000 jews.

Missiles will fly between Israel and Iran but the nuke will be dropped somewhere between them, possibly in Shaam, Allah ﷻ knows best. May Allah ﷻ protect. The dajjali forces want an excuse to use the bomb, and they are actively trying to create scenarios to justify it, they dont care for their own people or others in their pursuit for the power and control that they will have when Dajjal emerges.

The treacherous Shias will make it appear to the muslim world that they are the “saviours” of the ummah, and when they garner the support of the foolish masses, they will then bring forth a man who they claim is the Mahdi to lead the Muslims, but this will be the actual Dajjaal, and those following him, will be actually yahood, disguised as shia, because the yahood and the shia are one group, working together to present a show for the world, a dajjali deception, just as Abdullah bin Saba was the yahood who started the shia movement by claiming to be a Muslim.

Jews in a synagogue in Isfahan, Iran

Don't be fooled, they are working hand in hand to usher in the arrival of Dajjal, the jews call him the "Moshiach", the shias call him the 12th Imam, they are referring to the same person and neither of them is the real Mahdi.

The question is where will you be when all this occurs? What will you have prepared by then?

Will you still be a modern slave or will you have made preparations and broken free from modern slavery?

There are only two places of safety, the first is in the battlefield in the army of the real Mahdi, who will only be known after the group that goes to fight him, is swallowed into the earth, and the other place of safety is in the mountains, where Nabi ﷺ said the muslims would definitely flee, to be safe from the fitnah of Dajjaal.

There are some who naively say that it is not yet time to leave the cities and go into the mountains.

But has not the fitnah and the filth in the cities reached the extent that your children are no longer safe? from evil ideologies, lewd practices, exposure to music, drinking, drugs? Is there a public park that is not free from empty beer bottles lying around? Is there a Masjid where you do not hear the sound of music from cars driving past? Can you not see how the fitnah has surrounded us?

Have you not realised that you are already a modern day slave, with no control over your food and water supply, no ability to rear animals and grow your own food.

Your actions are limited by your masters, you don't truly own anything and are living in a fools paradise if you think you and your progeny are safe. You may be regular in your salaah and looking after your deen, but do you know what your children and progeny are and will be exposed to in the coming years?

The time to prepare to go to the mountains, to safeguard your deen, already came decades ago, and many made the move, and have been living in the mountains away from the fitnah, self sufficient and off grid for years.

There are more than 1250 such communities worldwide, many living in the mountains, most of them not even Muslim, and since the covid scam, the homesteading movement has gained tremendous traction, because even non-Muslims have realized the dangers of their kids growing up in modern cities, and the health benefits of growing their own healthy and pure food, breathing clean air and living with like minded people who will not conform to the Dajjali order

But alas, those who have been given the clear warnings and advice are skeptical and waiting, and not preparing, except for the qaleel, the few....

There is still a window of opportunity, there is still a chance to break the chains of slavery, the food production chains, that will be severely tightened when the bombs drop. There is still a chance to become self-sufficient and go back to the old ways of living, in a safe, clean and pure Islamic environment.

Starvation Caused by Nuclear Winter

Scenario: Table S5, Partial Livestock Case, 37 Tg (50% livestock feed to human consumption, no trade)

Simulated model of what may occur after a nuclear war. Allah ﷻ alone knows best

Every effort should be made to heed the advice of the hadeeth and prepare for the time when war & starvation will be used as a tool by Dajjal to steal the Imaan of millions, including our children, when every effort will be made to turn our progeny away from Islam, as is already happening with gender perversion, materialism, feminism and every other evil -ism that has taken over the world, especially in the cities.

If you do not start preparing to be safe from the dajjali fitnah and engineered famine now, then prepare to fight, as there is no third option.

The reality is that we have to prepare for both, because according to the hadeeth, the men and strong boys will have to join the muslim army if they are able to reach it, and the women and children will need a place of safety, self sufficiency and deeni ta'leem, where they will have to keep deen alive for the future generations insha'Allah.

If this is not done, then you will one day be overtaken by your circumstances in the cities, and the neglect of heeding the warnings..

Some are foolish to think that when the time comes to go into the mountains and flee the fitnah, a mountain will miraculously appear with everything all set up for them to live in and raise their children etc, so they spend their time amassing dunya, rather than facing the reality and preparing for this inevitable escape....

The ahadeeth regarding going into the mountains, to be safe from the fitnah have been placed by Imam Bukhari in the chapter titled:

باب من الدين الفرار من الفتن

"from the religion is the act of fleeing away from the fitan (trials and tribulations)"

Imam Bukhari (RA) is thereby indicating, that the hadith in this chapter make it clear, that it is part of Deen to flee and escape from the places of trials and tribulations, where one's Imaan or the Imaan of one's family can be affected or destroyed.

May Allah ﷻ grant us all the taufeeq to understand, wake up and take action, and guide us to the best path in every matter. Aameen.
